

Join us for an academic forum with Q & A investigating:

- Whether Yoo is complicit in the commission of war crimes.
- Whether torture is deleterious to national security.
- The impact of torture on our basic human and civil rights.
- The relevant law: Geneva Conventions, U.S. Constitution and Treaties.
- What remedy is available to torture victims?

John Yoo, former Bush administration Office of Legal Counsel, drafted legal memos which, some say, influenced the U.S.'s decision to torture. He's a visiting professor at Chapman University School of Law, where the controversy continues.

Speakers include:

- Katherine Darmer, Professor of Law, Chapman University
- Larry Everest, author of "Oil Power and Empire," & "Revolution"
- Ann Fagan Ginger, Founder, Meiklejohn Civil Liberties Institute
- Ameena Qazi, Staff Attorney, Council of American Islamic Relations
- Tim Goodrich, Iraq Veterans Against the War

Moderated by Michael Slate, KPFK Radio

ENDORSED BY:

ANSWER-LA
California Teachers for Academic Excellence
Code Pink - OC
David Swanson / AfterDowningStreet.org
Meiklejohn Civil Liberties Institute
Military Families Speak Out
National Lawyers Guild Chapman Students Chapter
National Lawyers Guild - LA
Orange County Peace Coalition
Patrick Henry Democratic Club
Peace & Freedom Party - OC
Progressive Democrats of America
Scientists Without Borders
Social Justice Committee of the Unitarian-Universalist Church in Anaheim
US Federation of Scholars and Scientists
Westside Progressives
Women For: Orange County
World Can't Wait

Contact worldcantwait\_la@yahoo.com, or 949-257-8501 for more information.

